ARCHITECTURAL SIGNIFICANCE (describe important architectural features and evaluate in terms of other buildings within community)

This house has several features of the Queen Anne style popular during the late 19th century. These include the irregularity of massing and plan, the use of gables and turrets and small window panes in the upper window sash or around a larger window light.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE (explain the role owners played in local or state history and how the building relates to the development of the community)

The original owner of this building has yet to be documented. In 1924, the property was owned by Mary E. Jordan. Later owners included Susan Atkinson and Norman Russell.
