Katelyn- My comments are:

For energy services to the new areas, they should consider all electric service and solar since that is south facing and to minimize additional fossil fuel use and to prepare for future net zero energy usage that may be required.

Meet LEED Platinum design level.

As much day and high efficiency lighting as possible.

It would also be good to make sure any landscaping or hardscape includes rain gardens and/or more permeable surfaces to minimize run off.

Subject: AJH Expansion Project- Site Plan Review Application

Good Afternoon,

In connection with Beth Israel Lahey Health Systems, Anna Jaques Hospital (the applicant) has submitted an application for Major Site Plan Review. The applicant is proposing to construct an 11,000 SF addition to increase the size of their existing operating rooms as well as new entrance and lobby expansion.

Please see the below link to the project which is planned to go before the Planning Board on February 5, 2020.
